

Board Meeting
November 1, 2005

In Attendance: Martin VanFossan, Jeff Raphelson, Doug Shore, Jeff Schodowski, Gregg Baughman, and Tony Greening.

Secretary - Nothing to report.

Treasurer's Report - Dave Parker has the proposed budget for 2005-2006. A long discussion was had and the proposed budget will be presented at the general meeting.

Education - Jim, John, and Jeff met and discussed advertising for the beginner's fly tying class. Media blitz is being planned. The team is still looking at re-doing the beginners video. In good shape to start the class as far as materials. They are planning on adding new flies to the beginners class.

Conservation - Greg Baughman has sent an email to Susan Thiele regarding next year's projects. The Oakbrook Chapter is willing to cooperate in doing an outing. The recommendation of the board is to go back to Twin Pines for the July outing. This will be discussed at the general meeting.

Fundraising - Raffle continues for the Orvis rod and reel. Letters out to some fishing companies to see if we can get some free items.

Guide books - reprinted all of the major books so we have a good inventory to sell from.

Fly Tying Expo -in Mason on December 3rd. We need people to assist in manning the table to sell river guides.
